Marvin has previously served on the Deacon fellowship for three years, been a small group leader, served on local missions, the next step center, and first impressions. Marvin has been a Christian for 26 years, surrendering his life to The Lord in September of 94 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE GLADE CHURCH

DEACON CANDIDATES | 2020

Ricky Cole

Ricky Cole was born in Nashville, TN on October 11, 1961, giving his life to the Lord and baptized at Scenic View Baptist church in the summer of 1973. Ricky married his high school sweetheart on August 15, 1980, and they are still in love after 40 years. They have 2 wonderful children, Brad Cole, 35, Lynelle Cole Sutton, 31, and 5 grandchildren, newborn to 10.

The Coles have been involved in church activities their whole life. Ricky was ordained as a deacon on January 9, 2011, at Bakers Grove Baptist Church. Ricky loves going on mission trips and has taken several to Guatemala, one to Haiti and one to Kentucky with The Glade Church Men. Ricky is looking forward to serving the Lord and the congregation at The Glade Church. Ricky's favorite Bible verses are Psalms 51:10-13

Ron O'Reel

Raised in a Christian home in Ky, Ron came to know Christ at an early age. Ron started attending Gladeville Baptist Church in 2002, rededicating his Baptism in 2003 in accordance with scripture (previously sprinkled). At the Glade, Ron was ordained as Deacon and has served in this active role for half of the time he has been here. Ron has also served as Trustee, Teller, First Impressions Leader, Wednesday night class teacher, small group leader, member of personnel committee, member of the lay leadership, middle school leader, high school boys small group bible study co-leader and has supported our mission teams. Ron looks forward to the possibility of serving as Deacon on the active role again and has the support of his wife, Lynell.
